

Frequently Asked Questions

▶ What are some of the goals of the campaign?

The main goal of the Soaring to New Heights Capital Campaign is to raise $4 million to install a new Turf Field and construct two new buildings. The Concession Building will be situated adjacent to the field and will feature restrooms and a covered patio area. The second building, an Athletic Field House, will be constructed adjacent to the gym and will feature a new weight room, locker rooms, film room, office space, and storage for the athletic department.

▶ Why now? Why this?

Enhancing our facility is a crucial next step in improving our school. This will help us remain competitive in the school market, strengthen our connections with alumni, parents, and students, and ensure we provide the best possible experience for every student.

▶ Who is behind this campaign?

An intensive third-party feasibility study was conducted, involving interviews with administrators, coaches, faculty, staff, students, parents, alumni, and community members to ensure that this project aligns with the needs of our campus. The campaign is led by a dedicated, Capital Campaign committee who are committed to maintaining transparency and accountability throughout the process. Additionally, we've partnered with a consulting firm to guide us every step of the way.

This campaign is focused on facility-wide improvement. It is not just for student athletes. Clubs and other organizations, as well as parents and alumni, will be using these shared spaces throughout the year. Our goal is to enhance the entire campus, benefiting all students and community members.

▶ How much money have you raised so far?

During the “silent” stage of the campaign, $3.3 million in pledged and one-time gifts have been raised. Our goal now is to connect with our entire Eagle community to raise the remaining $700,000.
